2.5 Personal information from permanent or temporary employees (N.B. professional football employees have a separate privacy notice), contractors and volunteers

2.5.1 Personal information about permanent / temporary employees and contractors

2.5.1.1 Information we collect before you start your employment

We collect, store and use the following personal information: your full name, address (including postcode), date of birth, national insurance number, email address, home telephone number, mobile telephone number, passport number, gender, bank details, drivers licence (if applicable), a copy of your P45, details of any right to work documents, details of your two referees (name, position, employer details and contact details), previous experience, details of your current employer and role, education, training and qualifications, and two emergency contacts for you (name, their relationship to you and contact phone numbers and email address).

We may also collect, store and use “special categories” of more sensitive personal information as part of the ‘Personal Health and Capability Declaration which could include information about your health, including any medical condition or disability where this relates to your capability to perform your role.

2.5.1.2 Information we collect when you start your employment

In addition to the personal information above, we will also put together other personal information about you and store it on our internal files. This will include information about your role, salary (including any bonus you have been awarded), job specification, and location.

2.5.1.3 Information we collect during your employment

We will collect, store and use the following personal information during the course of your employment including: details of any absences you take, notes from any performance meetings, notes from any disciplinary meetings we have with you, and training records.

We also collect, store and/or use your personal information to monitor access to our premises, security, health and safety and timekeeping via door access controls and CCTV. We will retain CCTV images for a period of up to 35 days.

We will also collect more sensitive categories of personal information which will include information about any return to work notifications, parental leave forms, maternity/paternity/adoption information, photographs, any criminal convictions you give us details of, and any further medical information which you provide to us.

2.5.1.4 Information we receive from other sources

We collect, store and use personal information given to us by third parties such as your referees. This will include details of your employment history and references from your former employees.

Should you answer 'yes' to any part of the Personal Health and Capability Declaration and complete the more detailed form as part of the new starter process, we will obtain the opinion of an independent Occupational Health specialist. The Occupational Health specialist will review your form and advise us of your fitness to work and recommend appropriate, reasonable adjustments in the workplace, should this be required.

2.5.2 Personal information we collect about our volunteers

2.5.2.1 Information we collect before you start as a volunteer

We collect, store and use the following personal information: your full name, home address, contact details, role applied for, education, experience, training and qualifications (UKCC Level 2 coaching qualification in Football, FA Emergency Aid, and FA Safeguarding Certificate), details of your two referees (name, position, and contact details), driving licence information, and work eligibility.

We will also collect more sensitive categories of personal information which will include information about any criminal convictions you give us details of, and any further medical information which you provide to us.

2.5.2.2 Information we collect during your volunteering

We will collect, store and use the following personal information during the course of your coaching with us including: details of any absences you take, notes from any disciplinary meetings we have with you, and training records.

We also collect, store and/or use your personal information to monitor access to our premises, security, health and safety and timekeeping via door access controls and CCTV. We will retain CCTV images for a period of up to 35 days.

2.5.2.3 Information we receive from other sources

We collect, store and use personal information given to us by third parties such as your referees. This will include details of your experience and references from your referees.

2.5.3 How we use the personal information we collect about you and our legal basis for using it

We have set out below how we use your personal information. In addition, we have set out our legal basis to use your personal information as we need to tell you this under data protection law.

2.5.3.1 Information used for contract purposes

We will collect, store and use your personal information for the purpose of administering your contract with us.

If you are an employee, contractor, or volunteer we will use your personal information to:

- arrange for our employment, contractor or volunteer contract and new starter pack to be sent out to you and administer them;
- set the terms on which you work for us (including any flexible working arrangements and any volunteer work);
- set you up as an employee, contractor or volunteer on our systems;
- administer the contract we have entered into with you;
- keep a record of absence;
- carry out disciplinary and grievance proceedings.

If you are an employee or contractor, we will also use your personal information to:

- pay you (including expenses) where applicable;

Next annual review due 07/03/2022

- administer and provide your contractual benefits;
- liaise with your pension provider where applicable;
- process your holiday requests;
- keep a record of any maternity/paternity/adoption/parental leave, where applicable;
- deal with any notice to leave and to make arrangements relating to your leaving; and
- review hours worked.

If you are an employee or contractor, we will also use your personal information to:

- set up and administer apprenticeship schemes, where applicable;
- arrange for and administer education, training and development requirements;
- arrange for and administer internal recruitment, promotion and changes of roles; and
- carry out performance reviews and manage performance.

We collect, store, and use your personal information for the purposes set out above on the legal basis that it is necessary for performance of your employment, contractor or volunteer contract with us.

2.5.3.2 Information we use to run the business

We will collect, store and use your personal information for the purpose of running the business.

If you are an employee, contractor, or volunteer we will use your personal information to:

- set up an employee, contractors or volunteers directory;
- set up email communications;
- deal with legal disputes involving you, or other employees, workers, contractors, and volunteers including accidents at work;
- investigate, pursue or defend a legal claim;
- keep our network and systems secure;
- provide references; and
- investigate and deal with whistleblowing issues or compliance matters.

If you are an employee, or contractor we will use your personal information to:

- create photographic security passes;
- arrange insurance;
- carry out business management and planning, including accounting and auditing; and
- carry out utilisation reporting (e.g. reviewing the profitability of a project by looking at how long jobs take as part of that project)

If you are an employee we will use your personal information to:

- create internal records e.g. meeting notes, records of training, time spent on projects, attendance at meetings or training, leavers and new starters; and
- analyse our data analytics studies to review and better understand employee retention and attrition rates.

The legal basis for the purposes set out above is that it is in our legitimate interests as a business to be able to use your personal information in this way to run our business and to enable you to carry out your role. We believe that this is a proportionate use of your personal information as you will see from how we use your personal information the uses are those which any well run business would ordinarily use and we will limit the personal information to that which is necessary in accordance with our General Personal Data Protection Policy (a copy of which is available on our SharePoint site.)

2.5.3.3 Information used for job performance evaluations:

We will collect, store and use your personal information for the purpose of evaluating your job performance.

If you are an employee, contractor, or volunteer we will use your personal information to:

Next annual review due 07/03/2022

- keep a record of employee, contractors or volunteers skills;
- assess qualifications for a particular job or task, including decisions about promotions;
- keep a record of course completion;
- carry out job evaluation meetings; and
- make decisions about your continued role as an employee, contractor or volunteer.

If you are an employee we will use your personal information to:

- carry out annual performance reviews;
- make decisions about salary reviews and pay, where applicable;
- offer professional psychological support, where applicable;
- record individual development plans; and
- plan for succession.

Our legal basis for the purposes set out above is that it is in our legitimate interests as a business to ensure that you are capable of carrying out your role, facilitate training where necessary and assist with career progression. We consider that this is a proportionate use of your personal information as the process is designed to provide you with feedback on your performance and ensure that opportunities for development are given to all employees and the path for career progression is clear and transparent throughout the business. When carrying out the processing listed above we will limit the personal information to that which is necessary in accordance with our General Personal Data Protection Policy (a copy of which is available on our SharePoint site.)

2.5.3.4 Information used for compliance

We will collect, store and use your personal information for compliance purposes.

If you are an employee, contractor, or volunteer we will use your personal information to:

- comply with health and safety obligations;
- prevent and detect criminal activity and fraud;
- facilitate whistleblowing; and
- comply with any other legal or regulatory requirements.

If you are an employee or contractor we will use your personal information to:

- comply with our employment obligations e.g. to check you are legally entitled to work in the UK;
- provide appropriate reasonable adjustments for employees or contractors;
- carry out audits to comply with legal requirements;
- carry out general legal reporting e.g. reporting to Companies House; and
- comply with tax and national insurance obligations.

If you are a volunteer we will use your personal information to:

- carry out DBS checks (if you are one of our academy coaches); and
- ensure child welfare and safeguarding.

Our legal basis for the purposes set out above is that we need to collect, store and/or use your personal information to meet our legal obligations.

2.5.3.5 Information used for monitoring

We will collect, store and use your personal information for the purpose of monitoring your use of our information and communication systems to ensure compliance with our company policies/compliance issues. Our legal basis for this use is that it is necessary for performance of your employment, contractor or volunteer contract with us.

We will collect, store and use your personal information for the purposes of monitoring access to our premises, security, health and safety and timekeeping via door access controls and CCTV. Our legal basis for this use is that it is in our legitimate interests as a business. We consider that it is in our legitimate interests to ensure that our premises are secure, that people on site comply with health and safety requirements and that employees, contractors or volunteers are working during contracted hours.

We consider that this use of your personal information is proportionate because we limit our use of personal information to that which is necessary for the monitoring and do not carry out continuous monitoring of your behaviour.

More detail of how we use our IT and communication systems is set out in our Communications Policy (a copy of which is available on our SharePoint site.)

2.5.4 How we use your sensitive personal information and our legal basis for using

If you are an employee or contractor we will use the sensitive personal information to:

- investigate and report any Health and Safety incidents;
- monitor your sickness to manage absence and administer benefits;
- assess your fitness to work (relating to both physical or mental health); and
- assess your disability status to provide appropriate reasonable adjustments in the workplace.

If you are a volunteer we will use the sensitive personal information to:

- carry out DBS checks.

Our legal basis for the above purposes are as set out above and if you are an employee or contractor, on the additional condition that it is necessary for the purposes of carrying out our obligations in the field of employment law, and if you are a volunteer, on the additional condition that it is necessary for the purposes of safeguarding children.

3.0 Can we change the purpose for which we use your personal information?

We will only use your personal information for the purposes set out above unless another purpose we want to use it for is compatible with those original purposes. If we change the purpose for which we are using your personal information and you would like an explanation as to how the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose please contact our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@harrogatetownafc.com. If we would like to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do this.

4.0 How long will we keep your personal information?

We retain personal information we collect from you where we have an ongoing legitimate business need to do so (for example, to provide you with a service you have requested or to comply with applicable legal tax or accounting requirements).

When we have no ongoing legitimate business need to process your personal information, we will either delete or anonymise it or, if this is not possible we will securely store your personal information and isolate it from further processing until deletion is possible.

Further details about our retention periods can be found in Appendices 1, 2 and 3 of this Notice. Please contact our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@harrogatetownafc.com if you would like any further information about our retention periods. If a dispute arises between us, we will keep your personal information for the purposes of responding to and dealing with this dispute and this may mean that we keep your personal information for longer.

5.0 Who will we share your personal information with?

We may share your personal information with trusted third parties from time to time. We will not, however, share your personal information with a third party for them to market to you unless we have your consent to do this. We do not sell any personal information to any third party so that they can send you their marketing material. We will only share your personal information with third parties where it is reasonable to do so.

IT Suppliers: We use reputable third parties to provide us with our IT systems (including our CRM system and website) and support for them. They may access your personal information to the extent that they need to in order to provide their services and deal with any issues.

With a company that we merge with or transfer our business assets to: In the event that we sell all or part of our business, or merge with another company, we may transfer personal information that we have collected as described in this notice, along with our other business assets, to the company that we are selling to or merging with.

Professional Advisors: We may also share your personal information with our professional advisors (including lawyers, insurers and/or insurance brokers) to take advice e.g. in connection with any complaint or claim which you (or the company you work for) make and to complete yours (or the company you work for) purchase, tribunals, enforcing the terms of our agreements.

With entities, companies or individuals outside our group for legal reasons: We will share your personal information with entities, companies or individuals outside our group where this is necessary to comply with any law, rule, regulation, legal procedure or governmental request that is applicable to us. We may also share your personal information with the police or other law enforcement organisations where we are required or permitted to do so.

5.1 Additional entities we share personal information with from online customers and customers who visit out ground

We have set out below the third parties we may share your personal information with. If we do this, we will put in place a contract with them which controls how your personal information may be used and which requires that your personal information is treated in accordance with data protection laws:

Card Payment Processor: If you are a customer and you purchase a product on our website, we will share your personal information with payment processing companies and/or Direct Debit providers who process our card payments to ensure that your payments are completed securely.

Delivery companies: In order to complete an order, we may share your personal information with appointed delivery service providers in order to deliver the products you have ordered.

Marketing and Media Companies: We may use reputable third parties such as Mailchimp to send out our marketing material. They may access your personal information to the extent that they need to in order to provide their services.

Sponsors and Partners: If you have consented to receiving it, we may send you, in our marketing communications, information about products and services provided by our existing partners.

5.2 Additional entities we share personal information with from suppliers

We will only share the personal information that you give us with the following third parties and for the following reasons:

With Strata Homes Limited: We may share your personal information with Strata Homes Limited in order to administer payment for goods and/or services.

5.3 Additional entities we share personal information with from employees, contractors and volunteers

We will only share the personal information that you give us with the following third parties and for the following reasons:

With customers, suppliers, players, academy players and their parents where you deal with or have contact with them: We will share relevant personal information with our customers, suppliers, players, academy players and their parents where you have contact or dealings with them as part of your role e.g. where you are their contact point for their purchase or coaching session, or where you deal with any issues or complaints which they might have.

With companies who assist with our employer obligations: We will share your personal information with our third party providers who support us in administering our employer obligations such as HR180 making payroll payments, managing maternity, adoption, paternity and parental leave and our grievance or disciplinary procedures, Aviva Workplace Pensions enrolling you on a workplace pension scheme (where applicable).

With HR180 limited for human resources: We will share your personal information with HR180, an HR company that we have outsourced our HR services to, including payroll. We will only provide HR180 with the information necessary to enable them carry out their services to us.

5.4 Additional entities we share personal information with about our Player Development Centre (PDC) and soccer camp attendees

We may share your personal information with the people set out below. We will not, however, share your personal information with a third party for them to market to you unless we have your consent to do this:

Card Payment Processor: If you are paying for the PDC or soccer camp by credit or debit card, we may share your personal information with the company which processes our card payments to ensure that your payments are completed securely.

Marketing and Media Companies: We may use reputable third parties such as Mailchimp to send out our marketing material. They may access your personal information to the extent that they need to in order to provide their services.

5.5 Additional entities we share personal information with obtained from CCTV

We will only share the personal information that you give us with the following third parties and for the following reasons:

With companies who assist us with providing security for our premises: We use reputable third parties to assist us with providing security to our UK sites. They may access your personal information to the extent they need to in order to perform their role.

With law enforcement agencies for safety and security purposes: In the event of an investigation, we may share CCTV recordings with the law enforcement agencies in order to verify identity and, if criminal behaviour is involved, take appropriate action.

5.6 Additional entities we share personal information with about students and prospective students on our educational programmes

Educational institutions who share the administration or jointly run courses with Harrogate Town.

Prospective employers or other organisations who request a reference for you.

6.0 Do we transfer your personal information outside the UK/EEA?

European Economic Area ("EEA") countries are all EU Member countries together with Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway. We store your personal information in the United Kingdom or in countries within the EEA. We only transfer your personal information outside the EEA where our third party service providers e.g. Mailchimp who we share personal information with (as set out above) are based outside the EEA.

We only transfer your personal information outside the EEA where we have a legal basis for doing so and where we require that your personal information is protected to the same standard as it would be protected in the EEA. We do this by entering into data sharing agreements with the recipients of your personal information based outside the EEA which comply with the EU Commission's standard clauses for the transfer of personal information.

7.0 How do we keep your personal information secure?

We have put in place appropriate physical, electronic and organisational procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties (see above) who have a business need-to-know.

We have put procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

Our security procedures mean that we may request proof of identity before we are able to disclose personal information to you.

8.0 What rights do you have over your personal information?

You have a number of other rights over your personal information, which are:

- 1) the right to ask us what personal information we have about you and to have a copy of your personal information from us;
- 2) the right to ask us to correct any errors in your personal information;
- 3) the right to object to our legitimate interests, profiling activities and marketing communications;
- 4) the right to ask us to provide you with a copy of the personal information you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and the right to transmit that personal information to another entity where: (i) we are using your personal information on the basis of your consent or on the basis that it is necessary to perform a contract with you; and (ii) the use we are making of your personal information is carried out by automated means;
- 5) the right to ask us to delete your personal information where: (i) we don't need your personal information anymore; (ii) you withdraw your consent to our use of your personal information and we have no other legal basis to keep your personal information; (iii) you have asked us to review and explain our legitimate interests to you and we don't actually have a valid legitimate interest to do what we are doing; (iv) our use of your personal information is illegal; (v) we have to delete your personal information to comply with our legal obligations;
- 6) the right to ask us to restrict the use that we are making of your personal information where: (i) you don't think the personal information we have about you is correct, so that we can check if it is correct; (ii) what we are doing with your personal information is illegal but you would rather we stop using your personal information rather than delete it; (iii) we don't need your personal information anymore, but you need us to keep it so that you can exercise any legal rights; and (iv) you have asked us to review and explain our legitimate interests to you, so that we can check whether we actually have a valid legitimate interest to do what we are doing;
- 7) where our use of your personal information is based on your consent, the right to withdraw your consent at any time by contacting our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@harrogatetownafc.com ; and
- 8) the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), (the UK regulator for data protection issues. See www.ico.org.uk). We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO and so, if you are happy to do so, please contact our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@harrogetownafc.com .

9.0 Does this privacy notice cover websites you link to from our website?

Links within our website to other websites, such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter, are not covered by this privacy notice. You should review the privacy information on those other websites to find out how they may use your personal information.

10.0 How will you tell me about changes to this privacy notice?

We keep our privacy notice under regular review. Any changes we make to our privacy notice in the future will be posted on this page and if the changes will have an effect on you or the way we use your personal information we will bring them to your attention by email where appropriate. Please check back frequently to see any updates or changes to our privacy notice. This privacy notice was last updated 10 March 2021.

11.0 How can you contact us?

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or about the ways we use your personal information, please contact our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@harrogetownafc.com or Harrogate Town AFC Limited, CNG Stadium, Harrogate, North Yorkshire, HG2 7SA .

APPENDIX 1 Further details about retention periods

Appropriate retention of data is necessary for our operational performance and in some cases is required to fulfil statutory or other regulatory requirements.

However, the retention of data can lead to unnecessary and excessive use of electronic or physical storage space, and indefinite retention of personal data can breach the General Data Protection Regulation (2018). Harrogate Town AFC looks to ensure that records and documents are preserved in line with business and legislative requirements and that data is not retained for any longer than necessary.

Data Archiving

The rules on data archiving vary according to the format of a data record, as set out below.

Automated Electronic Records Archive: Documents, Email, Multimedia Non-statutory electronic records stored on personal drives that have not been accessed for 2 years will be automatically transferred to an electronic archive. Statutory records will be excluded from this process if they are stored in the designated departmental statutory records folder. Archived files may be accessed in read-only format through the Archive (R:\) drive until they are subsequently removed from the system, 7 years after their creation.

Physical Records Archive: Physical statutory records which are older than 2 years and don't need to be accessed on a day-to-day basis must be archived. The records will be archived within the Harrogate Town AFC offices.

Electronic Records Retention & Disposal: Documents, Email, Multimedia

See appendix 2 for the retention rules that apply to all Harrogate Town AFC documents, email and multimedia. Non-Statutory Records - Schedules A-E.

See appendix 3 for the statutory records retention and disposal schedule.
